Clearing Members are advised that commencing on business date Monday 05 August 2024, ICE Clear Europe (the "Clearing House") will be conducting a Disaster Recovery exercise during which all Production ICE Clearing Systems will be run from ICE Clear Europe's Disaster Recovery Data Centre. This exercise will run from Monday 05 August 2024 to Friday 16 August 2024 inclusive.

Please note that during the Disaster Recovery exercise, systems at the primary Data Centre will be available for failback, thus maintaining the normal level of system and Data Centre redundancy throughout the exercise.

In order to facilitate this exercise, Clearing Members are asked to note that ICE® FEC, ECS and MFT will not be available from 12:00 until 17:00 London Local Time on Saturday 03 August 2024 and on Saturday 17 August 2024.

Additionally, Clearing Members are also required to reset their MQ Channel sequence numbers following the switch to the Disaster Recovery Data Centre, and again following failback to the Primary Data Centre. After 17:00 London Local Time on Saturday 03 August 2024, all Clearing Members should reset their MQ Channel Sequence Number for both their sender and receiver channels to "1". This action should be repeated after 17:00 London Local Time on Saturday 17 August 2024. Please note that the Clearing House is not supporting testing during this period and therefore Clearing Members are not required to send test messages. Clearing Members should ensure that relevant staff within their Back/Middle Office, IT and Operations teams are aware of this requirement.
